DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 5-10, drawn to a method for determining the sensitivity of proliferative disease in a subject to treatment with an mTOR inhibitor, comprising determining the level of expression and/or phosphorylation of S6 in a sample derived from said subject.

Group II, claim(s) 12, drawn to a method of selecting subjects suffering from a proliferative disease for treatment with an mTOR inhibitor, comprising determining the sensitivity of the proliferative disease to treatment with an mTOR inhibitor in each subject by determining level of expression and/or phosphorylation state of S6 and selecting those subjects showing increased expression of phosphorylated S6 for treatment with an mTOR inhibitor.

Group III, claim(s) 13, drawn to a method of treating a proliferative disease in a subject in need thereof, comprising administering an mTOR inhibitor if the level of expression of phosphorylated S6 is elevated.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature recited in Claim 1 is found in the prior art. Claim 1 recites a method for determining the sensitivity of a proliferative disease in a subject to treatment with an mTOR inhibitor, comprising determining the level of S6 expression and/or phosphorylation in a sample derived from said subject. Hidalgo et al. (Oncogene Vol. 19, pp.6680-6686, 2000) teaches administration of rapamycin, an mTOR inhibitor, to cancer patients and determining clinical benefit by measuring p70s6k (also known as S6) activation and phosphorylation. In view of the teachings of Hidalgo et al., the technical feature of claim 1 is not special and therefore the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Meera Natarajan whose telephone number is 571-270-3058. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday, 8:30AM-6:00PM, ALT. Friday. EST.
